

TEA APPRECIATION WORKSHOP

FALL 2008

Wuyi Oolongs I – Understanding and Appreciation

Wuyi Oolongs are the best winter teas because of their warming character. Fine Wuyi teas give you both warmth and energy, and very distinctive aromas which so captured Lord Byron. We will explore the characters of different Wuyi teas, highlighting the Premier's Wuyi, which is the tea reserved for high officials and state guests of China.

Date: 13 December 2008

Time: 3:30pm – 5:00 pm

Fee: $100 ($100 off for the purchase of Wuyi Oolongs after workshop)

Wuyi Oolongs II – Blind Tasting

We judge a tea by its taste, but its fame and price may sway our judgment. In this workshop, blind tasting of various Wuyi teas will be carried out. The aim is to learn the objective method of tasting teas, so we can be smart tea buyers.

In the blind tasting session, Wuyi teas by MingCha and other brands will be sampled.

You are encouraged to bring your own teas to share with the group.
